

Bivisible

Hook	TMC103BL 13 15
Thread	Black 06 08
Rear body	White cock feather
Front Body	Black cock feather

1. Tie-in the thread up to the middle of the hook shank

2. Tie-in the white cock feather concave side up as shown in the picture

3. Wind the thread to the curvature of the hook

4. Wind the feather to the curvature of the hook

5. Tie-off the feather at the curvature of the hook
6. Wind thread through the palmered feather making sure not to catch any feather tips

7. Tie-in the black cock feather at the eye of the hook in a similar way than the white feather but this time concave side facing down
8. Wind the thread to the beginning of the white feather

9. Wind the feather in tight turns back to the beginning of the white palmer
10. Tie-off the feather with the thread
11. Wind thread through the palmered feather making sure not to catch any feather tips

12. Wind head

13. Whipfinnish
14. Varnish head with black or transparent head cement