

Orange Frances Tubefly

Materials:

Tube:	Q-tip
Thread:	Black 8/0
Body:	Orange wool
Antennas:	Orange and grizzly cock feather quills
1 st hackle:	Orange rabbit zonker hair tips
2 nd hackle:	Orange cock feather
Ribbing:	Silver wire 0.25mm

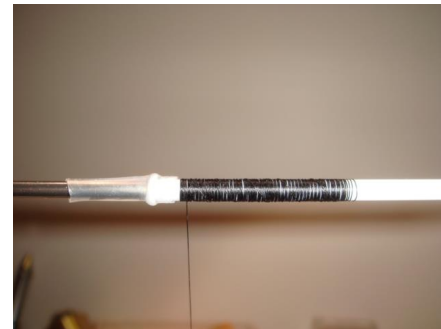

1 Cut off the cotton tips from the Q-tip

2 Using a lighter melt one side of the tube

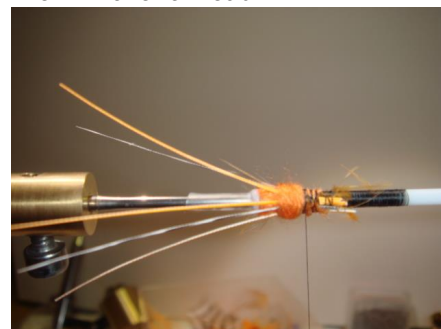

3 Slip a silicone tube over the melted end of the tube

4 Fix the tube on your tube needle
5 Tie in the thread

6 Tie in the orange wool and wind a tag with the wool

7 Tie in 4 orange and 2 grizzly cock feather quills evenly distributed around the tube

8 Tie in the orange wool and cover the tie in point of the quills

© 2013

9 Tie in the orange rabbit zonker strip hair tips as a 1st hackle

10 Tie in the orange wool and cover the tie in point of the hair tips

11 Tie in the orange cock feather and wind the 2nd hackle

12 Tie in the silver wire in front of the hackle

13 Tie in the orange wool and wind the front part of the body

14 Rib the front body with the silver wire

15 Wind head

16 Using a needle make a hole in the tube in front of the head (for hitching)

17 Trim the tube

18 Apply black head cement onto the head